SAYS "HOME RULE"
IS FAVORED BY LANE

Orme, on Return From Washington, Declares Salt River Valley Farmers Will Get Fair Treatment.

Phoenix, Ariz., May 22.—"It is my belief that the farmers under the Salt River irrigation project are not going to be compelled to pay the construction cost that is assessed against them by the reclamation service. They will pay only the original estimated cost, or the actual physical value of the project."

"Every reclamation project is going to be turned over to the farmers under it as soon as they show themselves capable of administering it properly. The Lane administration believes in home rule."

These statements were made by John P. Orme, president of the Salt River Valley Water Users' association, upon his return from Washington, where he attended the hearings before Franklin R. Lane, secretary of the interior, Capt. George D. Christy, legal adviser of the association, was also at the hearings.

"The hearings were fair from every standpoint," Mr. Orme said. "Secretary Lane evinced a most gratifying intention of getting at the real facts." "We asked for the cost of the project to be investigated and I believe an investigation will be made. At most the farmers will not pay for more than the proper cost of the project."

SEEKS TO ANNUL ADOPTION SO BOY WILL INHERIT MILLIONS
Seattle, Wash., May 22.—Henry W. Shoemaker, of New York, is plaintiff in a suit in the superior court against his divorced wife, Mrs. Beatrice Barclay Shoemaker, Perry, for annulment of their adoption of Shoemaker's five year old son, Henry, and for restoration of his name, Shoemaker. The father declares the boy will inherit $2,000,000 from the estate of his grandfather, Henry Francis Shoemaker, New York. If the name is restored, the petitioner does not seek custody of the boy.

The petition states that the grandfather is 67 years old and feeble and has provided a bequest of $2,000,000 to the petitioner in his will which sum the father promises the boy shall inherit if he bears the family name.

The boy's mother, who is the daughter of a wealthy lumberman, replies that the boy will be amply provided for under his present name.

REBELS MOVING TO ATTACK CHIHUAHUA

Three Large Forces Ready for Assault on Capital of Chihuahua.

"On to Chihuahua" is the battle cry of the revolutionists south of Chihuahua. American passengers on the Mexican Central train Thursday night saw Pancho Villa is at Santa Rosalia with 1500 men; Chao is at Parral with 1800, and Uribia is at Jimenez and at his ranch near there. The railroad is being repaired as far as Ortiz to permit the rebels to move northward toward Chihuahua, where the attack is to be made as soon as a leader is decided upon. All three of the southern Chihuahua leaders are hankering after the commander's job, the passengers from the south believe. Even the railroad, which was not in command of the troops in the entire state, has been suggested as a compromise candidate for this job.

The troops trains which left Chihuahua Wednesday night were not in command of Rabago, as was first reported. A column under Rabago had command of the trains carrying 500 federalists each with machine guns, artillery and ammunition to proceed against Villa. But the revolutionists of the federalists did not know the collective strength of the rebels in the south, the passengers say. One of the American refugees, taking a horseback from Durango to Parral and arrived in El Paso Thursday evening, says that the rebels are in the capital and the country between Torreón and Chihuahua is alive with federalists. Even the railroad, which was not in command of the troops in the entire state, has been suggested as a compromise candidate for this job.

Phoenix, Ariz., May 22.—Business property in St. Johns, the county seat of Apache, is being assessed, in some instances, for 20 times as much as last year.

It is probable that the increases in St. Johns will be the heaviest in the state this year. In all sections big increases are being made under the commission's order to assess for full value instead of 50 percent.

PHOENIX WHOLESALER CHARGED WITH ANTI TRUST VIOLATION
Phoenix, Ariz., May 22.—An action charging J. W. Dorris, one of the two leading wholesale grocers of Phoenix, with violating the state anti-trust law, has been filed in the superior court of Maricopa county by attorney general George Purdy Bullard.

The charge is based on a letter to J. P. Graves, a grocer of Glendale,

OPENING CONTRACT
WEST OF SOCORRO

New Road Into Rich Districts Prosperous Before Silver Dropped.

Lake Valley, N. M., May 22.—In the foothills of the southeastern slope of the Black range mountains, because of its nearness to the Mimbres river, known locally as the Mimbres range, the old mining town sprang into existence in the early eighties. It stands on a ledge of lime rock that slopes gently towards the east and on a natural drainage is one of the healthiest towns in the whole state, its altitude being little over 5000 feet.

There are very few shade trees in Lake Valley, water being rather scarce, all being taken from the chamber of workings of one of the old mines and run by gravity in pipes for domestic use, but there is plenty of water under the ground, for at the Good Luck mine, only six miles away, six men are employed night and day keeping the water out of the lower levels of this mine, which is rich in both silver and lead.

In the early eighties Lake Valley was a busy place. It had a population of 2000 people. For over two years it was the liveliest mining town in the whole of New Mexico. Most any day three to four thousand people were loaded with all of miners and prospectors, all bound for Kingston and the road lined with many more on foot, as Kingston was the only place where one could get a horse and wagon to take them to those days. The old mill of the Lake Valley Mining company still stands, also some of the old mine workings of the miners and the company office and boarding house, covering altogether some five acres of ground.

The principle industry which now keeps up the town is sheep and cattle and the range at the present time was never in a better condition. The hills and sheep are all fat and a good crop of both is assured. Latham Bros., who are the largest sheep owners in this locality and run some 15,000 head of sheep, have lambled some 30 percent increase from their ewes and a good crop is also being dropped. The heavy snow which fell up in the mountains above Hillsboro on the upper slope of the Mimbres range, for March, 1912, did not melt on the ground long enough to weaken the stock around Lake Valley; instead it fell into the ground and brought early grass—just what the cattlemen and sheep men wanted.

Twenty miles west on the top of the Mimbres range are located the grand Central mines, discovered some 70 years ago. An English mining syndicate built a road from Lake Valley to the mines and hauled over it some 500,000 pounds of machinery and tools. The road is in good repair now. From the rim of this great sloping road, seven miles out of the grandest panorama of mountain scenery in the whole of New Mexico, the road leads to the Pinaldenes along the Hudson in New York state, which is one of the greatest sight seen in New York city, the road follows the crest of the Mimbres mountains and this portion of the road is in good repair now. ARIZONA WHEAT RATE HELD UP

Interstate Commerce Commission Suspends Increase Ordered From Kansas.

Phoenix, Ariz., May 22.—Until December 19, the proposed increases in rates on wheat from Kansas to Arizona points have been suspended by the interstate commerce commission. By that time the Arizona corporation commission's case, attacking rates on both flour and wheat, will have been decided.

The Santa Fe and Southern Pacific recently filed with the commerce commission new tariff sheets raising the rate on wheat from Kansas to Phoenix from 85 cents to $1 a hundred pounds, and to Tucson and all other S. P. main line points from 85 cents to $1. Corporation commissioners F. A. Jones entered a formal protest and the suspension resulted.

The rate on flour into Phoenix is $1 a hundred pounds, against 45 cents for wheat. To Los Angeles, several hundred miles farther, the wheat rate is 55 cents and on flour it is 65 cents.

The proposed advances on crude and refined petroleum rates from Texas and Oklahoma points to southern Arizona have also been suspended, pending a decision in the oil rate case recently heard.

SEENES NEW TRIAL BECAUSE HE SAYS JUROR SNOORED
Los Angeles, Calif., May 22.—A loud and raucous snore jarred the basis for a motion for a new trial filed today in behalf of Lee Hal, alleged head of a "national bunco syndicate" who was convicted last week of having swindled G. P. Priest, an Illinois farmer, out of $100,000, a multimillionaire realty operator of San Pedro, had fallen asleep and snored repeatedly during the progress of the trial, despite earnest efforts to keep awake by chewing gum and fanning himself.

Judge Finlayson, who had set today as the time for imposing sentence upon Hal, continued the case until Monday to give the prosecution an opportunity to respond to the motion.

Here's Fly Antidote

"Screen the Cradle"

Here are fly aphorisms which the people of El Paso are urged to keep well in mind.

It is better to screen the cradle and wear a smile than weep at the precaution and wear mourning.

Flies in the dining room precede nurses in the sick room.

A fly in the milk or on any food may mean sickness in the family.

A fly has natural enemies; the most persistent and most effective should be man.

It costs less to buy a screen door, or screen off the stable, than to get sick and lay off for a month.

Get one or more fly traps and TRAP THE FLY.

New York, May 22.—White slavery and prostitution in the city of New York are firmly established upon a commercial basis and those engaged in the purchase and sale of women are thoroughly organized, according to the report of George J. Kneeland, of the department of social hygiene, which John D. Rockefeller, Jr., is chairman.

Cassidy and Adams have had plans prepared by T. E. Kimber for a 40 room brick tenement building to be erected at the corner of Sixth and Hill streets, to cost about $12,000. There will be stationary laundry equipment in the courtyard, which will be cemented, and there will be cement walks all around the building.

The same firm has purchased four lots on One street in block 45 East 53 from Fred J. Clark for $1800 and will erect two modern brick bungalows thereon.

A Policy You Won't Regret

One hour of real investigation before you buy is better than years of regret afterward. This truth applies most forcibly when buying life insurance—because being sorry afterward won't give you your money back—nor alter the facts.

Merely placing another policy beside one of the Union Central Life, of Cincinnati—and comparing them—does not bring out all the facts. They may be alike in amount—kind—age at issue—and first cost. The real difference looms up big after both have been in force a few years. THEN compare the net cost. You'll find a difference of many dollars in favor of the Union Central policy—because of its matchless annual dividends which reduce the cost to you. The official records prove this. Let me show you.
